We're giving you the chance to win one of 5 x When There Are Too Many Lawyers, There Is No Justice books.

If you've ever been involved in a petty squabble and found yourself before the courts you might want to read the astonishing true story in When There Are Too Many Lawyers, There Is No Justice ($24.95). A dispute over $115, with a nudge from the legal system, took on a life of its own and over ten years involved every court in the country including the High Court of Australia. Tired of pedestrian legal advice and ballooning costs, Aussie man Alan Manly, a self-acknowledged obsessive compulsive and former postman, sacked his lawyers and took on the legal system. In this thrilling account he finds himself accused, sued, defamed, assaulted - stumbling over shams, sexual predators and suicide, unemployed and teetering on the edge of bankruptcy - his life virtually a smoking ruin. In this David and Goliath rematch he exposes the legal system that so easily crushes the innocent. Sometimes hilarious, even ridiculous, this is a true Australian story. Now available at all good book stores. For more information visit <https://alanmanly.squarespace.com>
